Symposium 2017

The Endocrine System

Preview of Lectures

ANGELA BRADBURY LECTURE:

The subtle but vital essentials for ensuring Endocrine productions along with activation synergistics and therapeutics. To include chart handouts for assessing patients and their thyroxine, progesterone and oestrogen productions.

PHILIP WEEKS LECTURE:

Adrenal Fatigue

Many are exhausted as a result of our modern lifestyle and inadequate nutrition. Philip will cover how to test your adrenal strength and interpret results and share strategies to restore core health.

PETER JACKSON MAIN LECTURE:

The Endocrine Orchestra – Reading the Score

The lecture will expand upon the use of iris display to illuminate and address patterns of endocrine disharmony mediated by humoral transportation. This approach emphasises the interconnectedness of endocrine organs and tissues, and draws upon both contemporary and traditional diagnostic models.

JOHN ANDREWS LECTURE:

Modern Iridology and the Hormonal system

How to prioritise new Iris and Pupillary signs for the Endocrine System featuring signs for progesterone, prolactin and many other therapies included.

CONFERENCE VENUE

Providing flexible, bright and ethically driven seminar rooms and facilities, Resource for London is conveniently located at 356 Holloway Road, London, N7 6PA. We are on the 1st floor as per previous years. Register and collect your badge on the ground floor reception desk. Refreshments and a special gluten-free complimentary lunch will be served in the Exhibition Hall.

FINDING RESOURCE FOR LONDON

By London Underground

Take the Piccadilly line to Holloway Road station. On leaving the station, turn left and walk that direction, under the railway bridge for five minutes. Resource for London is on the opposite side of the road and can be reached by using the pedestrian crossing.

By Bus

Buses 4, 17, 29, 43, 153, 253, 259, 271, 279 and X43 stop within a short walk of Resource for London. Also there are mobility buses available in the area, these are numbered 920, 921, 923 and 927.

Parking: Google <http://en.parkopedia.co.uk/parking/n7%206pa> or put N7 6PA into the JustPark website for private driveways at a competitive price. <https://www.justpark.com/uk>. Waitrose has a car park at the rear of the venue but it is best for short-term parking only.

EXHIBITORS

We are delighted to welcome back the well known companies that have so generously supported the Guild over the years. The Symposium gives our exhibitors the opportunity to build and renew relationships with us whilst bringing us up to date with New and Innovative products and technology in the fields of health and healing.

I think you will be pleasantly surprised this year.

We are also very pleased to welcome new exhibitors.

Please support your Exhibitors and visit every stand,

Register today!

Plus, refreshments and totally gluten-free buffet lunch are included in the price
